

A little place of our own

Imagine a little place to make, play or rest.

Where could there be a busy space?

Where could there be a quiet space?

How could we ask before joining someone?

Draw, point, build or talk. You can choose who joins you. You do not have to write.

