A visitor’s turn

Use with the book open at page 27. Keep the colour example visible while you work.

Can you find a fold, a tear or a pencil mark? Pick one thing you noticed and tell the maker. If this is your own museum, draw or write one thing you spotted after setting it up.

What I spotted

Make a visitor ticket

Use with the book open at page 28. Keep the colour example visible while you work.

Draw a ticket for someone who’s coming to your museum. Add the museum’s name or a little picture of one exhibit. You can make a ticket for yourself, too.

My museum record

Use with the book open at page 29. Keep the colour example visible while you work.

Draw your museum here or record it on your own piece of paper.

My museum is called …

_____

One thing I made …

_____

It used to be …

_____

A little detail I want to remember …

_____

Make your own labels

Use with the book open at page 30. Keep the colour example visible while you work.

Copy these onto spare card, trace their shapes or use them as ideas.
