FREE ACTIVITY 1

Find Kit’s things

Point to each picture as a grown-up reads the clues. You can make a sound or act out the answer.

What hangs on the pear peg?

What bumps Kit’s trainer?

What does Kit draw in yellow?

Grown-up key: the coat, the green bus, the letterbox on the little red door.

FREE ACTIVITY 2

Give the bus a stop

Start at Mo’s bus. Take two fingers along the tracks. In the empty space, draw where your bus will stop.

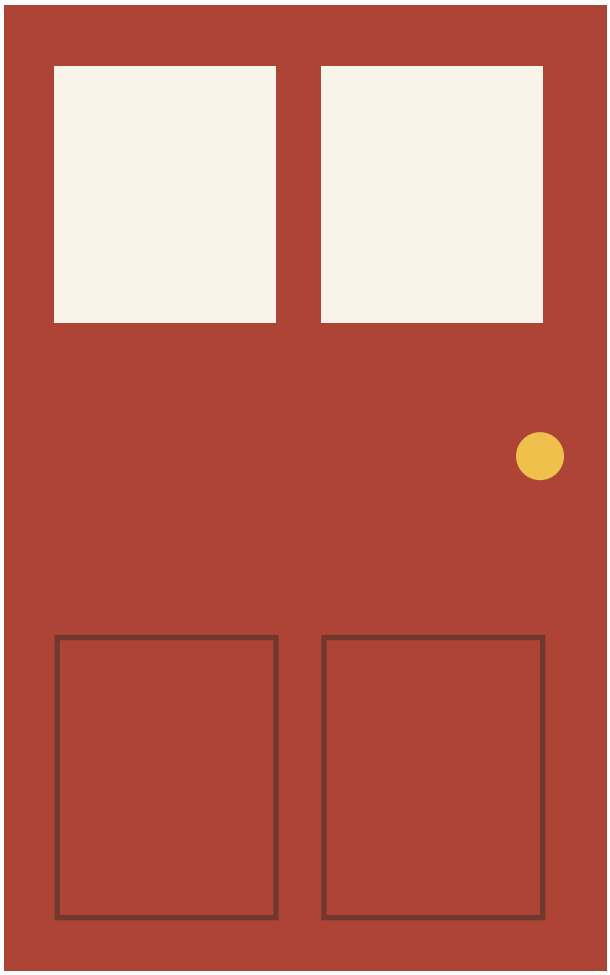

My stop

Try again with a different stop. A grown-up can draw where the child points.

FREE ACTIVITY 3

What is missing?

Kit’s door needs a letterbox. Add a short line where it belongs. Choose a sound for the flap.

My door goes…

Use a yellow crayon, a sticker or a finger. In the story the sound is “Clack!”

FREE ACTIVITY 4

Which came first?

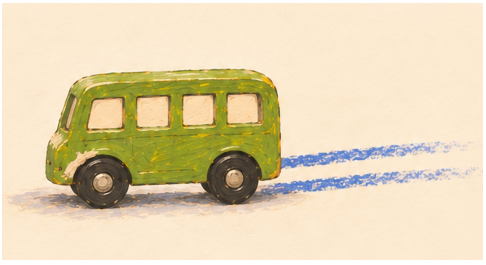

Ask a grown-up to cut out the three pictures. Put them in story order, then tell the story your way.

Kit shows Dad the road.

Kit hangs up the coat.

The bus bumps Kit’s shoe.

Grown-up key: coat, bus, road. If you keep the page whole, point to the pictures in order.

FREE ACTIVITY 5

Try a goodbye

Choose a goodbye for a toy. Try it together. Draw or show the goodbye you would choose for yourself.

Wave a hand

Say a few words

Offer a squeeze

My own goodbye

A child can choose their own gesture or watch someone else. Ask before offering a squeeze.

FREE ACTIVITY 6

Make tracks that fade

Use a blue crayon to make two tracks. Start with a firm mark. Let your hand get lighter until the tracks disappear.

My first try

Start

Another road

Start

Try it with a finger first. Use the side of a chunky crayon if that feels easier.

FREE ACTIVITY 7

A picture for someone

Choose someone to show your picture to. Draw something from your morning. Show them where to start with two fingers.

I want to show _____

A grown-up can write the name or the child’s own words. Keep the picture to share at collection.
